

SAVE THE DATE!

November 5-6, 2009

Managing Wet Weather with Green Infrastructure

A valuable workshop for stormwater professionals, watershed organizations, and municipal officials in the Northwest Ohio region

For registration information visit: www.raingardeninitiative.org

Agenda

You may register for one day or both days

Day 1:

November 5, 2009 8:30 am - 5:00pm

Toledo Zoo

Anthony Wayne Trail Entrance, 2 Hippo Way Toledo, Ohio 43609

Technical presentations and case study discussions by national experts and subject matter specialists in Ohio, Michigan and Indiana.

Topics include:

The environmental and community benefits of Green Infrastructure

Design and Construction of practices

Operation & Maintenance of practices

Water and stormwater re-use practices

Audience

Practicing engineers, MS4 program managers, planners, landscape architects, watershed organizations.

Professional development credits are available.

Green Infrastructure on Brownfield sites

Green roofs

Making it happen - project implementation

Day 2:

November 6, 2009 8:30 am - 3:00pm

The Shops at Fallen Timbers

3100 Main Street, Suite 1599, Maumee, Ohio 43537

Field trips to green infrastructure sites in the Toledo area

Hosted by

In partnership with Tetra Tech and USEPA

Fee

There is no charge to attend this workshop.
However, a $10 donation will be accepted at check-in to cover associated cost.

